Last year there were 55 honor students for the first nine weeks compared to 64 "A" students the first quarter this year.

Yuletide Concerts To Be Presented By Music Classes

There will be an annual Christmas concert of the band, orchestra and all of the choral groups.

The Christmas Band Concert, under the direction of Mr. Donald I. Boyd, will feature 106 members of the band playing many different selections. Among them are: Fan Fare; Black Horse Troop March; Finale from "New World Symphony"; If Thou be Near, Pitter Pat Parade; Latinata, a first saxophone solo by Kathleen Knock; Sleigh Ride; Mr. Wonderful; Hoopla, featuring the flute section; Three Kings; Bugler's Holiday, by the cornet trio, consisting of David Rawlings, Burt Larson, and Jim Paulson; The Christmas Suite; and Stars and Stripes Forever.

The band will play for a student assembly on December 18. The public concert will be held on the 19.

The choir groups that will be in the concert are the First, Second, Girls and the Boys Glee Clubs, and the Senior Madrigal. There will be a combined concert of the choir and the orchestra. The number of the participants in the orchestra will be about forty-five, and the number of singers are well over two hundred. Wednesday, December 12, at 8:00 PM was the date set for the public appearance. The school assembly for the vocal groups will be presented on Tuesday December 11, and the orchestra's performance will be given Thursday, December 13. The first choir and the orchestra are giving a combined piece; "The Messiah" by Handel.

Wilbur Schafer is the conductor of the choral groups. The conductor of the orchestra is Herbert Merrill, Mr. Fish and his art classes did the stage decorations. Many groups have been set up to sell tickets, which will soon be on sale.

The First Choir's program will include: "O Sing Ye to the Lord"; "The First Christmas"; "Hodie Christus Natus Est"; "He Shall Feed His Flock"; and "Masters in This Hall."

The second choir will sing "Alleluia"; "Sing We All of Christmas"; "O Jesu So Sweet, O Jesu So Mild."

All senior members are participating in the Senior Madrigal. Their numbers will be: "Mary's Lullaby" and "Ding Dong Merrily on High."

The Freshmen Girls Glee Club also plays an important part in the program. They will sing: "Noel, Noel! Bells are Ringing"; "A Flemish Carol"; and "Wind Through the Olive" (Continued on Page 2, Col. 5)

'County Fair' Presented by Footlighters

"County Fair", the second footlighter production of this season, was presented November 27 and 28, in the senior high auditorium. A variety show, it began at 8:00 and consisted of three acts.

Composed of high school talent exclusively, it was under the direction of Miss Jean Jacobson, dramatics advisor, Mr. Dale Krammes of the radio-speech department, and Mrs. Lillian Renecke of Wisconsin State College. Lynn Spicher held the position of student director. Virginia Lind was stage manager, and Kay Furrer acted as business manager.

The first act, "On the Midway", included Dale McFarlane, baker; Ellen Perrin as the Memfis Menis (commonly called Elvis Presley); Darrell L. Johnson, Steve Randies, Bill Malkson, and Roger Hotchkiss as "The Four", a mens quartet; Jeanine Anderson, who sang popular songs from the musical, "My Fair Lady"; Trudy Moehle and Gene LaRock, the "Buffaloburgers", jitterbugs; and Jay Borum as Eartha Kitt.

Featured in this act were the "Milkmaids", a chorus line made up of Judy Mautz, Barb Preston, Jane Walker, Betty Zichelsdorf, Mary Ramsey, Elsie Kolka, Barb Aberg, Lynn Nelson, Sherry Shaw, Janet Quigg, Mercedes Thompson and Virginia Lippin.

The play "Why I am a Bachelor" comprised Act II. It told the story of a couple at a fair who gave a demonstration of married life. The skit showed how a romance progressed through courtship and marriage and was climaxed by a biscuit-throwing scene. The cast was as follows:

Lecturer: Roy Gilbertson
Aigernon: Len Friede
Henrietta: Judy Catlin
Henrietta's Mother: Kay Furrer
Aunt Emma: Shirley Thorson
Ida May: Marge Hollister

The third and final act consisted of The Tumble Weeds; Jeanne Paape, Carolyn Neperud, Judy McElwaine, Roxie Loken, Frank Jevne, Larry Vold, Allen Lee and Ronnie Nelson, tumblers; the Hi Five; trampoline artists, Larry Vold, Frank Jevne, Don Young, John Barstad and Jim Spielman, for whom music was supplied by Vern Baker, organist; Jim Stillman's Dixie Land band; and a finale by a chorus line.

The evening was begun with music by a German band. The members of this group were Roger Christy, Russel Helwig, Chuck Johnson, Malcolm Severson, and Elroy Severson.

Entertainment between acts was provided by Cindy Long and Lynn Nelson, pianists, and Virginia Lind, vocalist.

Don Larson, Wisconsin State College, was in charge of lighting and set design.

Committee chairmen for the variety show were Judy Franck, makeup; Marlene Felton, Props; Sandy Meyer and Carolyn Conway, costumes; Shirley Thorson, publicity; Al Perry, stage crew, and Barb Steinke, ushers.

Turkey Trot Held; Animal Prizes Given

The annual Turkey Trot dance, sponsored by the Lyceum Club was held in the ECHS gym on November 16.

Prizes were awarded for the best articles written on the subject, "Why I think the Turkey Trot is the best dance of the school year."

First prize, a turkey, went to Bud Burman. Second place winners were the "Four J.P.'s": Jeanne Paape, Jackie Paape, Judy Peterson and Judy Persikio. Their prize was a goose. Tied for third place were Judy Stringer and LaRayne Reali, each winning a duck. Grand prize went to Ruthie Mattison, who was a small, black pig.

Dancing was from 7:30 p.m. to 10:30 p.m. to the music of Jimmy Knight's orchestra. The gym was gaily decorated with paper turkeys, pumpkins, streamers and a lighted center ball which turned slowly. Admission was 35c or a booster ticket.

tee were: Mary Catlin, Florence Morris, Sibil Steiner, Janet Duffy, Diane Hemmingstad, Dorothy Kenyon, Sandie Powers, and Katy McIntyre.

Those on the props committee were: Susie Hulbert, Joan Hahn, Judy Meltz, Paul Klawiter and Ron Pynn.

Publicity committee members were: Sue Anderson, Marge Hollister, John Bell, Kathie Kidd, Linda Wahlstrom, Barb Harmon, Jim Jones, Paul Klawiter, Ron Pynn, Jane Hagness, Sharon Beighly, Brenda Brown, Alyce Leipnitz and Len Friede.

Participating on the stage crew were: Roger Casper, Keith Blaisdell, Brad Paulson, Joe Duerre, and Earl Lieberg.

John Bell and Brad Paulson served as electricians.

Mr. N. Bussell and Miss J. Christianson, physical education teacher, assisted with the trampoline act and chorus line, respectively.

S. Anderson Attends Meet

Sue Anderson, a junior here at ECHS, attended the Girl Scout Regional Convention November 12-14. The convention was held at Great Lakes near Milwaukee. Four thousand Girl Scouts from such states as Indiana, Michigan, Illinois, and Wisconsin attended the meeting.

The president of the Girl Scouts of America was present and was one of the keynote speakers. Princess Ilina from Romania was one of the honored guests at the convention. Dr. Marcus Bock, noted author was there also.

Sue and Katy Ganka, from Regis High School, were the two representatives from Eau Claire that were chosen to attend the convention. This meeting is an annual affair.

Debate Invitations Received by Coach

Invitations to several early December debate tournaments in Wisconsin and Minnesota schools have been received by Barry Robinson, Senior High debate coach.

Two tournaments will be held on December 1 at colleges in St. Paul, Minnesota. One team may be entered in the contest at Concordia College. Two teams will be allowed to enter the tourney at Macalester College, one of which will participate in cross-question debate. The second team will debate in the regular style.

Alexander Ramsey High school in St. Paul will be the scene of a tournament on December 8. Teams entering will debate affirmative two rounds and negative two rounds, in addition to participating in cross-question debate.

An invitation to attend the annual Merrill, Wisconsin debate tournament has also been received.

Student Teachers Practice at ECHS

Several student teachers from the Wisconsin State College are practicing at ECHS. The purpose of their work here is to obtain experience in their various fields of teaching.

Upon arrival they are assigned to two teachers in their major and minor fields. In these teachers classes they observe teaching methods and get acquainted with the students. After completing these preliminaries the student teachers will be given an opportunity to take over the class.

The student teachers who arrived October 22 are:

Darlyn Krepsky whose major is English. Her minors are history and psychology and she will be assisting Miss Landfair and Mr. Matz.

James Schiver, whose minors are physical education, is majoring in English. He is working with Mr. Al Johnson and Mr. Bussell.

Glenn Auman is assisting Mr. Matz and Mr. Lystrup. He is majoring in biology and has speech and history as his minors.

Kathryn Mergen, whose major is speech, is assisting Miss Couture and Mr. Mortimer. She has English as her minor.

Lillian Renecke has history and speech as her minors. She is majoring in English and is practicing with Mrs. Chatterson and Mr. Krammes.

Rose Pribil, whose major is speech, is assisting Mr. Robinson and Mr. Haig. Her minors are sociology and history.

Joan Hoard is working with Mr. McGinnis and Mr. Krammes. She has English as her major and has speech and art listed as her minors.

Sandra Welker is practicing with Mr. Mandelholm. Her minor is speech and her major is English.

Donald Larson is assisting Miss Jacobson and Mr. Fish. His major is speech and his minors are art and sociology.

News In Brief

Dinners Served for Faculty

Dinners were held recently for the faculty members. These dinners are then very much. These dinners are an annual affair after the football season.

Wednesday, November 7, was the date of the men's turkey dinner. It was served in the school cafeteria.

The women faculty members held their dinner Monday, November 12, at the Carneo Room. Ham was the main course and after eating, the ladies played bridge.

Candy Mystery Unsolved

Between second and third periods, Thursday, November 8th, one-hundred and twenty candy bars were stolen from a candy machine. However no money was taken. It is still uncertain as to how the machine was opened.

Teachers to Hold Meeting

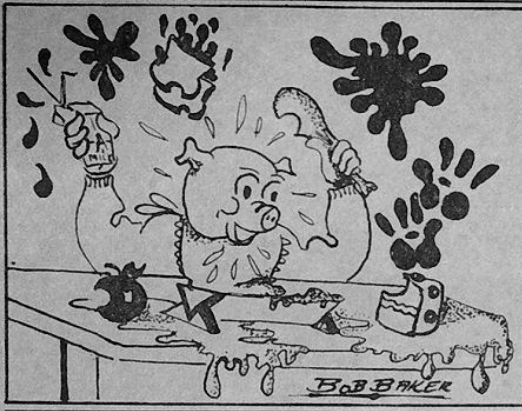

The teachers of our English Department will hold a curriculum meeting, Wednesday, December 5. The major purpose of the meeting is to acquaint the teachers with the new senior high.

Mr. Barnes will take the teachers on a tour through the new school. After the tour there will be a discussion and dinner at the home of Mrs. Boortz.

The committee in charge of this meeting consists of: Mrs. Marie Chatterson, Miss Esther Ausman and Mr. Barry Robinson.

Crystal Ball to Be Given

On December 7, the cheerleaders will sponsor the Crystal Ball. It is a regular school dance, but a special hilarious fashion show skit is being planned by the freshman, sophomore, junior, and senior cheerleaders. They will also be selling cokes and checking coats.

'Students, Do Not Abuse Your Eating Privileges!'

During the noon hours at ECHS, four classrooms are used as lunch rooms for those students who carry their lunches from home.

This is a privilege! BUT--the students awarded this privilege abuse it to such extent that it should be discontinued. Half eaten sandwiches, pieces of cake, torn pieces of waxed paper and mangled paper bags are literally piled up throughout these rooms. The walls tend to take on a polka dot effect as splashes of chocolate milk, aimed carelessly at the corner trash can, miss their mark.

Due to a shortage of space in the cafeteria and the tremendous amount of students eating at school, these rooms are necessary to the lunch program. Next year we will move into a new building with ample space for all to eat, but until then the present system will have to do.

Students with scheduled classes in these rooms fifth period are wasting a few minutes each day putting the room back in normal and cleaning sticky substances from table tops and chairs.

Students say: "Well-what are janitors for?" This is a very selfish response as the custodians at ECHS are doing their utmost to clean up after us and keep our school in proper order.

Just walk down the hall past the cafeteria right after or during the noon hour and see for yourself. Maybe a look at our "MESSY HALLS" and lunch rooms will have an effect on the actions of some of our student body.

We certainly hope so.

Let's all lend a hand in caring for our school and make ECHS a school of which we may be proud!

Tumblers Learn Fundamentals

Have you ever wondered what it's like to see the world upside-down while it slowly turns red? Or have you had the experience of flying through the air and landing on your head on a nice soft mat?

These, and many other experiences usually happen every day in the periods 6 and 7 tumbling classes.

The beginning tumbling class, which is held period 7, is now learning the fundamentals of tumbling. This includes forward and backward rolls, snap-ups, headstands, elbow-balances, hand-and-head-hand springs. Towards the end of the year they will begin to concentrate on the more advanced feats, such as flips and standing and walking on their hands. There are some tumblers in 7th period who are already working on things like this.

In the 6th period tumbling class, which consists of the advanced tumblers, perfection in the fundamentals is learned, and the more intricate and difficult feats are practiced.

Each year a tumbling show is presented by the tumblers, in which all who want to participate may. Last year's tumbling show was held on on February 22.

There was a tumbling program presented in the variety show. Those who took part in it were: Roxie Loken, Jean Paape, Larry Vold, Frank Jevne, Allen Lee, Ronny Nielson, Carolyn Neperud, and Mary Patrow.

A tumbling skit was also put on by twelve girls during the Wauwautosa game played here November 24. The girls were: Barb Anderson, Sharon Krigsvold, Elizabeth Lane, Judy McElwaine, Opal Stage, Marie Watts, Jane Panzer, Jo Dean Sturgis, Leah La Page, Kay Gilgan, Judy Persiko and Betty Patrow.

If you would have gone to the Turkey Trot you would have seen an array of colors and styles.

Barbara Thompson appeared in a blue plaid Tyronian dress while Janet Christianson fashioned a torquise taffeta quilted skirt and a black, long sleeve sweater.

A red wool sheath jumper was worn by Carol Hardy. With it she matched a red plaid boy shirt. Janet "Pug" Lund was seen dancing in a red felt circle skirt with a scoop

A dress of navy blue and black, necked blouse of white jersey, white pleated trim on the sleeves and on the collar, three-fourths length sleeves, with full skirt was worn by Priscilla Gram. Jeri Hanson danced in a dress of black and white plaid wool pleated skirt with a high necked blouse and a long torso.

The flying saucer club, sponsored by Catlins, once more announces the winner in their weekly contest. The winner is Barbara Harmon, 707 Grey Street.

Are you "going steady", just "going with someone", or are you "available"? Whatever may be the case, chances are that you have some way of showing others this.

Tiny sword-like pins were very popular for a while at ECHS. They are still seen a lot in the halls and classrooms, even though the enthusiasm has dropped some. There are some arguments, but most agree that crossed pins mean "just going", and if you're "going steady", you wear one pin and your steady wears the. (Continued on Page 4, Col. 5)

ECHS Has 8 Sets of 'Look-Alikes'

ECHS has eight sets of twins going to school here this year. There are four sets of boy twins, two sets of girl twins, and two sets of mixed twins.

John and Dick Turk have been very active boys during their four years of high school. Both played football on the Freshman squad in their first year here. Both have participated in track and have played football on the "B" squad. John is musical, whereas Dick goes in for sports more. John was a member of the 2nd band in his sophomore year and was very active in the French Club too. Dick was on the varsity football team this year and a member of the homecoming court. He has been a member of the Student Council for two years and has been active in radio speech also.

Lyle and Loyde Gardow are the second set of twins in the senior class. These boys, even though they are twins, do not look much alike. The two brothers are taking the same classes this year and have them all together except one.

Two new-comers to ECHS are Doris and Dorothy Kenyon. Even though the girls have only been here for a short time they have already made many new friends. Doris is active in News here at ECHS, and Dorothy is interested in dramatics. She is in the beginning dramatics class here. In Superior, where they used to live, the girls were both active in GAA and in church activities. The girls look very much alike but admit they don't "run around" together and they each have their own friends.

The Erickson twins, Donald and Dave, juniors do not look like twins but they are alike in many ways. As a matter of fact, the boys are taking the very same classes this year and are in every one of them together. They are taking advanced and solid geometry. Both the boys are particularly interested in sports, especially football.

Julie and John Rood are in the freshman class. Both are rather quiet and look much like twins, even though they are of opposite sexes. Julie is active in home economics while John is in the 2nd band and is taking a shop course' too.

Dale and Dean Sabin are the only boy twins in the freshman class this year. Both are interested in agriculture and are members of the FFA.

John and Judy Zurbuchen are also beginning tumbling class and is a mem-freshman this year. Judy is in the be-ber of the Glee Club here. John had the honor of being the only freshman boy on the "B" squad football team this year. Judy and John look much alike with their dark hair and dark eyes.

Elain and Earline Lieberg complete the sets of twins here at ECHS. Both the girls are interested in home economics here at ECHS and enjoy their classes very much.

Senior Judy Meltz Enters Competition For European Trip

Judy Meltz, ECHS senior, has been selected by the Eau Claire Girl Scout Council as their representative in the Region 7 competition for the Juliette Low Session in Switzerland next summer.

Judy was selected on the basis of her experience and skills. This year she attended the Girl Scout Senior Round-up near Detroit, Michigan.

The Juliette Low Session will be held at Our Chalet, Switzerland, and the trip also includes a tour of Europe.

One girl will be selected from about 100 applicants for the region including--Wisconsin, Michigan, Illinois, and Indiana. There will be a total of four girls chosen from the U.S.

Thanksgiving is over and we're back all rested up from our too short vacation. However, we really never let up and we're always on the snoop for scoop. The following is what we swept up in our broom since the last time we were with you.

Pat Krause has been having quite a few parties at his cottage lately. Pray tell, what are the kids going to do now that it's cold!!!

EXTRA! EXTRA! "Squirrel" and "Bulldog" are going together now. He even walks her home from school all the time, most of you know who we mean of course, but to save embarrassment, we'll leave the names out of this!

Senior, Bev "Punkie" Young is sitting around we hear-- as a matter of fact, for 90 days. Trudy Moehle doesn't think this is a long period of time though-- she's still rolling the tape and waiting around for, well not 90 days-- about four years! And all this for D.B.???

Joan Sorenson and Joy Borum are looking for an answer to a certain question. Boys, just what does "Gringo" mean???

Puzzle of the Week: Try to figure out who the two "sob sisters" of the junior class might happen to be!

CARLSON CHATTER: Little Craig Carlson has taken up where Big Bryn (who graduated in June) left off-- on student council, that is. But where does Rambling Rick come in? Well, he's only prexy of the senior class as well as the newly appointed captain of the basketball team. Which reminds us, GOOD LUCK ABES!!

Rotary Club Choses Darrell L. Johnson As Nov. Uthrotar

Darrell L. Johnson

Darrell L. Johnson, a member of the senior class, has been chosen as this month's Uthrotar.

Darrell played on the varsity football team at an end position. Ski jumping rates as one of his favorite hobbies, but he also enjoys basketball and hunting.

Chemistry and English are his favorite subjects in high school. Darrell's future plans are to attend the University at Madison, Wisconsin and hopes to be a chemical engineer.

He is a member of the Stump Club and is also on the track team.

Last summer Darrell worked as a camp counselor at Camp Manitou on Long Lake.

He has been attending the meetings of the Rotary Club during the month of November.

Education Here Prepares Grads For the Future

The Business Education Department graduates of June, 1956, are quite busy as office and clerical workers in a variety of fields.

In the courses offered at Eau Claire Senior High forty-six were trained as secretarial majors and sixty-one completed the advanced typing course. A survey made the first part of November showed 103 interviewed and four not being interviewed.

Six of the forty-six have gone on to other educational institutes. Four have jobs in other cities and two are married. Thirty three of these secretarial majors have work in Eau Claire.

In the advanced typing section, eleven of the fifty-eight interviewed are continuing their education. Five advanced typists are working out-of-town, while ten of them are married.

Some of the married typists are continuing to work. Three are in the armed forces and the remaining twenty-nine are working in the city.

Boards Decorated By Girl Reserves

The bulletin boards of ECHS were very festive before Thanksgiving vacation, thanks to the hard work by a group of Girl Reserves.

The organization is in charge of the decorations throughout the school year. For Thanksgiving the girls cut out turkeys, Pilgrim hats horns of plenty, and many other symbols of the holiday. The Girl Reserve members put many hours of work into the cutting, painting, and posting of these decorations. Chairman of the decoration committee for the bulletin boards was Lois Halvorson.

Others working on these group were Jayne Ahlstrom, Bonnie Buck, Sharon Burgess, Janet Christianson, Karen Gabus, Barb Gilbert, Margaret Glenz, Carol Goetz, Nancy Goller, Mary Gregerson, Ruthie Mattson, Judy Peterson, Rose Rose, Mary Russell and Sandra Wensel. Advisor for the organization is Miss Ellen Otteson.

A. H. Briggs Narrates Film

Mr. Henry Briggs was narrator to a film shown in the auditorium here on November 16. The entire student body witnessed it at two different assemblies. The name of the film was "The Birth of the Florida Keys."

The film told of the life on the thousand islands off the coast of Florida. Shown in the film were scenes of plant life, as well as animal life. He told us that no humans live there, because of the swampy climate and the dense undergrowth. In spite of this we saw how really beautiful and alive it is there, with the colorful birds and interesting animals.

The film was in color and was of special interest to biology classes, although it was enjoyed by all.

The First Choir will sing along with the orchestra on the following songs: "And the Glory of the Lord" and "Hallelujah Chorus".

The orchestra's program will include: "Lilliput Suite", "First Movement of Symphony Number Seven", "Russian Dance from Nutcracker Suite", "Last Spring", "White Christmas" and also the "Sandpaper Ballet."

Kirk Clark, in an oral report in English said, "Charles Steinmetz, an ugly man himself, knew how it felt to be lonely and unwanted. On the grounds of his huge country home he kept alligators, toads, gila monsters --and, well, anything you might like."

Booster Club Dinner Held At EC College

Eau Claire Bluegolds and Old Abes, who between them won 14 of 16 football games this season, were honored at the annual Eau Claire Athletic Booster Club Banquet at the State College, Tuesday, November 13.

Along with tributes from several speakers, the players from Eau Claire's two public school teams received letters from their coaches and a few gridders won special awards.

Judge Merrill Farr served as toastmaster. Glen V. Rork, scheduled as main speaker, was unable to be present because of illness which hospitalized him in Minneapolis.

Speakers included John Novak, Eau Claire High Athletic Director; David Barnes, Eau Claire High Principal; W. L. Zorn, Eau Claire State Athletic Director; and coaches of the teams, John Gallagher of the Old Abes and Ade Olson of the Bluegolds.

Coach Gallagher announced the winners of two special awards. The tackling award went to Pat Krause, senior guard, and the blocking award to senior tackle Dean Högdaahl. He also announced that Brad Easterson, junior tackle, had been elected captain for next season.

Christmas Seals Sent Out

This year is the 50th annual sale of Christmas Seals by the Anti-Tuberculosis Association. On November 26 letters were sent out to thousands of citizens asking for their support in this drive. Included in the letters were two sheets of seals at a dollar a sheet.

The Business Education Classes folded seals, placed them in envelopes and also addressed them. As an example, one class took care of over three-thousand envelopes.

The Anti-Tuberculosis Association is doing a tremendous job. Last year along with our City-County Health Department, they were instrumental in supporting an X-Ray survey for over 16,000 persons. They also provided regular X-Rays for approximately 600 persons.

The seals on your Christmas packages and letters show that you are helping in this "Christmas Crusade" against tuberculosis.

Old Abes Win Home Opener

Strong Defense Halts Wauwatosa

After trailing at the end of the first quarter, Eau Claire Old Abes put the clamp on Wauwatosa and rolled up their third straight win of the season in a home game opener at the college gym last Saturday night, 61-39.

Wauwatosa dropped in nine of 13 shots in the first quarter to take a 20-18 lead over Eau Claire. But the Raiders could add only 19 points the rest of the game, as the Abes tightened their defense and the visitors couldn't find their range again.

Eau Claire again used a balanced attack to pile up the points, its starting five ranging from 8 to 15 points. Center, Neal Wagner, led with 15; Captain Rick Carlson had 14; forward Tom Partlow 11; guard Dick Tornowski 10 and guard Dave Niermeyer eight.

The Old Abes kept up the pressure and rolled in nine more points in a row to start the fourth period, boosting their margin to a peak of 27 points at 58-31. Wauwatosa went scoreless during a period in which the Abes scored 16 straight points. With Eau Claire reserves playing the final minutes, Tosa netted its final eight points.

With the tall Wauwatosa team shooting very well in the first quarter, it looked like a big scoring duel was in the making. But Eau Claire took charge in the second quarter, and the Raiders couldn't score more than eight points in any of the remaining periods.

Moans, groans, bumps, and many bruises may show the results of many heated tries to stay aboard those two long, shiny, very well waxed things they refer to as skis. But if spunk and determination prevail you, you won't let a few spills stand in your way of fun and excitement. You'll just pick up yourself and try again.

Although approximately 105 students have already signed up for this club Mr. Nelson, advisor, urges all who are interested to sign up with him. Meetings will be held once a week at Pinehurst Ski Bowl, where instructions on better skiing will be administered to the skiers.

With many skiers from last year, the club has a good chance in winning places at the WIAA State tournament and also at the triangle meets later in this year.

Mr. Nelson hopes to get a city bus to transport the skiers, and thus encourage more teenagers to take part in the ski club.

Here is a definite feminine trait clearly worth knowing: When a woman says, "It's time to go," it doesn't mean she's going.

Hunting success through the state Saturday, November 16, the opening day of the deer season, was running ahead of the 55 season, although deep snows in the northern woods halted efforts to get the animals out of the woods.

Dr. Ruth Hine, conservation department biologist at Madison, said that four stations in the west central area indicated a 390 success increase on opening day a year ago.

The counts were made by state field men who branched out in four directions. They reported that hunting pressure was almost the same as last year but the ratio of success had jumped from 9% a year ago to 12% Saturday.

In Clark and Eau Claire counties 223 hunters were contacted. They had shot 38 deer for 17% success. Fifty-eight hunters in Waushara county had eight deer for 13.8% success. In Adams county 154 hunters had eight deer for 2% success, and in Wood county 164 hunters had 20 deer for 12.2% success.

The state ranger station at Hayward reported that 16 deer had been registered at 5:30 and many more were expected later that night.

The largest deer kill of the day was in the vicinity of Black River Falls where 234 deer had been checked in. Department men at River Falls said that the first day figure indicated that the kill would be on the heavy side.

Oshkosh headquarters reported 18 deer, and at Woodruff 38 deer had been registered by the hunters.

Conservation officials at Madison said the sub-zero cold and the drifted snow in the northern area might delay hunters from bringing in deer from camps for several days.

Jack Rada, former Eau Claire High scatback, continues to do well as a freshman griddler for coach Tony Stori's Montana State Team. The Bobcats have won eight straight and last Saturday they beat Montana for the first time since 1947 by a 33-14 margin. Jack raced for gains of 13, 10, and 15 yard gains in the fourth quarter which produced a final touchdown.

Stori, former Sioux coach, listed Rada as one of his freshman players who looked very good.

HIGHLIGHTS

By DeWayne

The FFA recently initiated new members into the organization at the regular meeting held Friday, Nov. 16.

The initiation was of a formal type in which the members pledged themselves to service and loyalty to the chapter. After the formal acceptance ceremony, each member received a bronze emblem pin indicating his membership rank. These new members are called Greenhands.

Twenty-one boys were initiated, and they are: Michael Blum, David Carter, Ronald Carey, David Day, Richard Erickson, Terry Erickson, Donald Felton, Willard Gullickson, Jerry Haddeman, Kenneth Hunt, James Lantz, Halvor McCabe, LaVerne Nelson, George Orth, Robert Riekemann, Dale Sabin, Dean Sabin, Leon Schretenthaler, John Tollefson, Roger Turk, and James Warden.

Total membership in the Eau Claire FFA chapter now stands at 77 boys.

The FFA basketball program got off to a good start with 33 boys reporting for practice on November 12. During December, the Eau Claire FFA will play Fall Creek on the 7th, and Augusta on the 14th.

Helping the FFA advisor, Mr. Cordes, coach the boys are Mr. Schreiber and Mr. Aumann.

Old Abes Open Season With Double Victory

The Eau Claire Old Abes racked up their second Big Rivers Conference game at Marinette on Friday, November 16, by swamping the Marines 66-39.

Marinette didn't put up much of a fight as the Old Abes were never headed following a 2-2 tie early in the first quarter.

Rick Carlson was again high man for the Abes with 21 points, and was hitting well on just about any kind of shot he tried. Partlow and Wagner, each with 15 points, teamed up with Carlson in controlling both backboards, out-rebounding the taller Marines.

Carlson had 9 points out of the first 15 scored by the Abes shortly before the first quarter ended.

After the Abes ran the score up to 38-25 in the second half they coasted along in front of Marinette for the rest of the game. In the fourth period the Marines cut the margin to 52-33.

The reserves didn't see much action as Gibbs kept the regulars in until the last few minutes of the game. None of the subs scored.

The Abes, who were supposed to be inexperienced, got off to a very experienced start by whipping a Wak Menominee, Michigan team to the tune of 84-35 on November 15.

Rick Carlson, forward led the attack with 20 points. Other high scorers were Neal Wagner with 28, Tom Partlow with 16, Dick Tornowski with 9.

The pattern of the game was easily spotted as the Abes jumped to a 16-2 lead early in the game and held a 22-7 margin at the end of the first quarter.

In the second quarter, the Abes pushed the mark to 36-13, and then coasted to a 41-17 margin at the half.

With the regulars still in the game, the score zoomed to a 75-30 score halfway in the fourth period when the reserves took over.

Tim Bartingale, stubby forward, led the reserves as he dropped 3 baskets into the bucket for 6 points.

Mike Miller, tall man for the Maroons, who had the Old Abes worried, was held to a meager total of 5 points.

Student: "No wonder so many of us flunked the exam."

Student Makes Corsages and Centerpieces

Bob Jump

Did you know we have a talented young man in the art department of ECHS? He displays his talent by producing flowers in the form of corsages, artificial flowers, and centerpieces.

Robert Jump became interested in this project approximately seven years ago when he had made a few for his family and friends for Christmas. Under their encouragement he started making and selling the items to Milwaukee stores.

He has worked at Mays and Demler florist and from this he has acquired experience in the decoration of store windows, weddings, and showers. Bob has decorated the sets of many of the ECHS plays and operettas including Brigadoon, Adam Loves Eve, Song of Norway, and Sweethearts. He also made the artificial flowers for the previous years senior class banquet.

Christmas corsages, made by Bob, will be sold to students for 35c each and at the Metropolitan Dime store for $.50. Centerpieces are $.25.

Students will be able to talk to Bob in school or call him at his home, Te 2-0397, between 3 p.m. and 9 p.m. evenings to place their orders.

See the samples in exhibit window by auditorium and make sure you aren't the only one without a Christmas corsage.

Senior: "Why did the little chicken walk across the road softly?"

Freshman: "Why?"

Senior: "Because he was a itty-bitty chicken, and he couldn't walk hardly."

Typing Contest Held; Seniors Place First

The advanced and the beginning typing contests were held November 14 and 15. The first place winners were Carolyn Otterson and Luther Werth.

Three top advanced typists were: Carolyn Otterson who typed 72.7 words with five errors, for first; second with 64.7 words and five errors was Kay Thompson; Ken Lippin came in third with 74.7 words and ten errors. The beginning typist was Luther Werth with 46.4 words and five errors. Donna Hrubesch typed 41 words with five errors. The third place winner was Radina Jensen who typed 38.4 words with four errors.

The three fastest and the most accurate typists are taken from each class to enter the five minute contest. The total words are counted with two words subtracted for each error. The remaining number of words is what your total will be. These tests will be held each month.

The last typing contest will be held in May. The three fastest and most accurate student typists then receive trophies. Mr. Nelson is in charge of these contests.

Art Department Has Interesting Display

For Open House held November 14th, Mr. Fish's Art Department put up displays and demonstrated various art techniques.

The displays included creative designs, graphic art and basic line drawing from the beginning class.

Art techniques that were demonstrated were graphic art, creative design, line drawing and inner tube printing.

Especially interesting were the cord and inner tube printing. One example of these two that was done was a design of a lobster from an inner tube and over it a fish net made of cord. After the lobster design was glued to cardboard, printers ink was applied to the rubber. The ink saturated pattern is then printed on fabric or paper. The cord fish net was inked and then applied over the already printed lobster. Out of two such unlikely sounding materials as inner tube rubber and cord comes a realistic and decorative design.

FASHION FOCUS

other one.

In Chicago, teenagers leave their Ivy league belts open and the girls roll their anklets a certain way, to show they're going steady.

Painting names on your steady's shoes, was another idea used in Detroit.

Madison teenagers wear identical beanies or the boys give their girls a small duplicate of their letters.

In Mississippi, dog tags and collars are exchanged and some boys even give their girls their flowered garters. We wonder what the girls do with them!

Most steadys like to dress alike once in awhile and the most common and oldest custom is to exchange rings.

Bye you Focusers, see you in a couple weeks when we'll have our letters to Santa Claus. If you have any special outfit you are asking for Christmas, please drop up to the NEWS room in 212 and leave it on a piece of paper on the table. Thank You!
